

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements	ii
1. Chapter One: Methodology.....	1
2. Chapter Two: Legal Framework.....	4
3. Chapter Three: Socio-Economic Status.....	9
4. Chapter Four: Nationality	29
5. Chapter Five: HIV/AIDS.....	50
6. Chapter Six: Family Responsibility and Family Status.....	64

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This report is the product of the committed teamwork demonstrated by the Equality Legislation Project Staff. The Project Team was led by the Head of the Research and Documentation Department of the South African Human Rights Commission (SAHRC), Advocate Tseliso Thipanyane. The other members were Dr Noko Frans Kekana, Rikky Minyuku, Judy von Benecke, Tshepo Kgoele, Nono Dihemo, Zaheer Minty, Mike Lehloenya, Prince Mudau, Nthabeleng Thipa, Kgomotso Ramofolo, Itumeleng Masako, Moeketsi Phantsi and Nono Matsaba.

The members of the SAHRC gave us the opportunity to contribute to the development of one of the cornerstones of human rights law and democracy in this country and we thank them for this as well as for their untiring support for the Project and its Team.

In the process of synthesising the research, the opinions of experts including experienced jurists, legal scholars, academics and human rights consultants were solicited to strengthen the report. We are thankful for their constructive criticism and support. These experts include Anton Kok, who made comments on the section dealing with Nationality; Beth Goldblatt and Coriaan de Villiers who commented on Family Responsibility and Status; Sandra Liebenberg who dealt with Socio-Economic Status, Liesl Gertholtz who commented on the chapter dealing with HIV/AIDS and Dr Tom Leeuw who gave his input on the Chapter on Nationality and Family Status and Responsibility. We also thank all those who participated, gave their input and contributed to the improvement of the report at the Workshop on the 4th and 5th of October 2001.

This research and the report would not have been produced without the unstinting support received from the Department of Justice and Constitutional Development, particularly the provision of funding, offices, telephone lines, and various other things without which the Project would not have been able to function. Special thanks go to the senior staff members of the Department, Mmeme Sejosengwe, and Beryl Simelane.